

Biography

Eileen Scipione was born in 1948 to believing parents and was 'born again' by God's Holy Spirit in 1970. Married to Dr. George C. Scipione, they have five children and two grandchildren. She is a member of Redeemer Orthodox Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh, PA. She has spoken on many and various topics impacting women such as confrontation and forgiveness, perfectionism, crisis pregnancy counseling, post abortion counseling, and godliness/ health.

Experience:

- Special Education Teacher, 1970-1972

- Ran homeschooling network, 1984

Director of Center for Unplanned Pregnancy, 1985-1994

Biblical Counselor with IBCD and BCI, 1998-present

Education:

B.S. 1970 Kutztown University, Special Education and Elementary Education

Graduate work for Visually and Multiply Handicapped at Univ. of Pitt 1971

- NANC certified 2004

- IBCD certified 2005

- Graduate Program at Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary (present)

Publications:

Women Helping Women (two chapters within)

The Afternoon of Life (one chapter)